Offerings at Local Houses

Tomboy School Girl.—Viola Dana, as a romping tomboy school girl transformed through love to a young woman of charm who is able to play a vampire when occasion arises, scored a big triumph last night at the Bijou Theater, in her newest picture, "Tomboy School Girl," adapted by A. P. Younger from H. V. Edmund's drama, "Eliza Giza To Stay."

Joins the Police Force.—Phil Read (William Duncan) asks for a job on the police force. In the third episode of "The Silent Avenger," at the Bluebird today and tomorrow, as a means of obtaining evidence needed to clear himself, he receives a physical examination which gives him an opportunity to show his ability and strength. He wins a tug of war against a half dozen husky policemen, holds two of them over his head by their belts, and performs some amazing stunts on a gymnastic vaulting horse.

Dorothy Gish Coming.—Vienna Dorothy Gish and her novel means of laugh-getting will be in the city.

seen at the Colonial Theater today and tomorrow in a brightly screen comedy, "Remodeling Her Husband." The action has a domestic flavor to it, being the story of a maiden who married a fire with the idea of making a one-woman man out of him.

Hillyer Hiding Director.—Lambert Hillyer is one of the few riding directors. He is the man who holds the megaphone for William S. Hart. He rides a horse like a panther, and also he drives a car. But on location he is always seen mounted on his steed, shouting orders and giving the players, or riding at breakneck pace over the rough country to arrange some incident to the action. In fact there are not many as versatile geniuses as Lambert Hillyer—and his personal qualities have endeared him to his many friends. His careful direction will be noted in the new William S. Hart production, "The Toll Gate," at the Bijou.

"The Shepherd of the Hills."—Harold Bell Wright's picture of his immensely popular novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills," supervised by the author personally, will be the attraction at the Odeon Theater for two days starting with the matinee today.

AMUSEMENTS
McGee Rent Comedian.
Joe B. McGee and his burnt cork humor are to be featured in Broadway Jimmie, the farce with music which will be presented as the third of the series of plays for the local summer season offered at the Strand Theater by the Jimmie McGee Musical Company. McGee has been assigned a role in the possibilities of farce, of which he is an unusually talented and resourceful comedian and his ingenuity in coaxing laughs has been conclusively demonstrated in "That's My Wife" and "Pretty Baby."

Laugh-Getters at the Lyric.—Another entertaining bill is playing at the Lyric for the last half of the week, a program which will suit the most fastidious. It is full of sprightly fun and dancing, the sort of thing one enjoys these warm nights.

"Tango Shoes"—An old favorite in vaudeville is again featured and is quite a scream from start to finish. Billie Burke is sponsor for this act and that is quite an endorsement. "Tango Shoes" is a decided novelty; the idea is that these magical shoes when worn by young, old, fat or lean can make the wearer jazz around with no trouble at all. It is an amusing offering and quite a laugh-getter.

Another big feature is the Maryland Singers, headed by Charles Fring. This company of five singers present a unified and harmonious act which is entirely pleasing. The songs are all favorites and the voices the best.

For those who love black-face comedy there is Joe Bonnet to fill the bill. He has a good line of songs, stories and sketches which he puts over in good style.

The Janet Slaters, whose act is entitled "Dancing Around," live up to their name for their offering is packed full of dainty dances. They combine grace with dainty steps and the result is a highly entertaining number.

Leila Sahlin, the cycling Venus, will be seen at the Lyric.

Close the show in a pleasing riding and athletic novelty.

The first motion picture display complete the bill.

A. C. L. Shoppers Return to Work.—MONROSVILLE, Ala., June 10.—Members of shop crafts employed here by the Atlantic Coast line railroad who walked out recently in connection with the strike of clerks, returned to work today.

FRECKLE-FACE
Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any drugist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the horrid freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the drugist for the double strength Othine, as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

Sometimes you wonder, perhaps, why a big institution like Sydnor & Hundley, carrying furniture of all good kinds and for homes of all classes, will select a single article and devote one advertisement exclusively to it. The answer is easy:

We know that you know we have other things besides those we talk about in a single advertisement; that we can take your home and furnish it from the front veranda to the kitchen porch. But what's the use of trying to tell it all at one time?

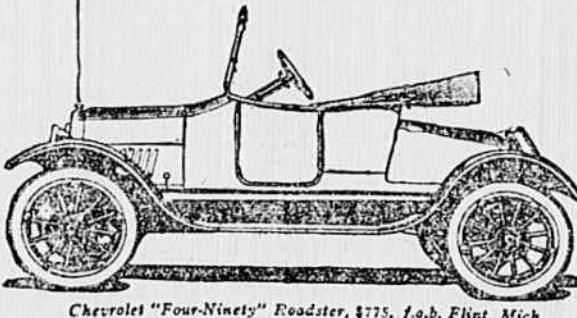

We want you in our store, good people of Richmond, to meet and greet you face to face—not merely talk thru the newspapers. Besides, you should see what you are buying—it is the only satisfactory way.
